

Nitrogen Optimization: Strategies to tackle the climate crisis in food production

The maintenance of food production and its potential future development depend on adaptation and mitigation strategies to tackle the climate crisis; and nutrients use efficiency in production systems with high N requirements.

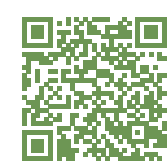

Chile / Argentina / Dominican Republic / Panama / Peru

The implemented initiative

The technological solution

Results

MÁS INFO

Main donors

Participating Organizations

